Re: United States vs. Juan C. Tenorio and Charlene F. Tenorio,
CR 07-00078, District Court of Guam

Dear Judge Tydingco-Gatewood:

Judge, I have known these two individuals during my teaching career at Cathedral and Santa Barbara Catholic Schools. Now, their grandchildren are going to Bishop Baumgartner Catholic School.

- How long we've known each other, and based on what relationship.

I have known Juan and Charlene Tenorio in the early 70's - I had their daughter, Lisa in the grade school. Both parents were very responsible and dedicated to their children and now to their grandchildren. They have never failed to pay their tuition and whatever dues that needed to be paid. They both have good moral values, right principals and good character.

- Your description of our characters as you have perceived, hopefully something good.

Yes, I believe they have good character and are good decision makers. Unfortunately their decision at this time was unintentional.

Any other worthwhile characteristics we possess: our community contributions and involvements.

Juan and Charlene Tenorio are both very generous to the community not just to the non-profit, private Catholic Schools and Churches. But also to the government and other businesses here and beyond. Their 3 girls grew up with all kinds of activities and both parents are very responsible and generous to share whatever they have to support their children's involvement. One of their daughter is teaching at the University of Guam.

Thanks so much for your compassion and mercy.

Sincerely yours,

Sister Brigid Perez, RSM-
